Financial Obligation Policy

By registering for courses at the University of Louisiana at Lafayette (UL Lafayette) and clicking on B y laws, rules and regulations applicable to your registration,

You acknowledge and agree:

You are fully responsible for payment of all tuition and fees, room and board, miscellaneous charges and/or fines that accrue to your student account after by the prescribed date for the University, you are such aid.

If you leave UL Lafayette prior to the 60% point in the semester, officially or unofficially, you are obligated to return any federal aid received for that semester proportionate to your attendance. The full amount of any financial aid you fail to return will accrue to your account which will be sent to the State of Louisiana Attorney General's Office for collection. Once assigned, you are responsible for all collection costs including, but not limited to, attorney's fees and court costs. If you pay your fees with a check or e check and the check is returned by the bank for any reason, you will be charged $30 for each returned check.

All debt owed to the University as a result of your failure to make required payments, will result in a violation of the terms and conditions of this contract. Pursuant to Act 399 passed by the 2013 Legislature, failure to respond to demands for payment made by UL Lafayette may result in such debt being transferred to the State of Louisiana Attorney General's Office for collection. Upon transmittal for collection, you are responsible for the collection/attorney's fees in the amount of thirty three and one third percent (33 1/3%) of the unpaid debt, and all court costs.

The University reserves the right to withhold future services (registration, transcript request, diploma, etc.) to persons who have any outstanding financial obligations with the University.
